

Sunday Sermon Discussion Questions

March 22

1. What has been your biggest frustration thus far about the Corona Virus scare?
2. What are some of the fears you have right now?
3. Based on what you know about the personalities of the twelve apostles, script out a conversation you think might have taken place on the boat during the storm.
4. Jesus does several miracles in which he shows his sovereignty over creation. What are some of those other stories?
5. What do you think is the point of these miracles?
6. When this crisis passes, what are some ways we can remember and acknowledge God even in the good times?
7. What is one way you can fear less this week?
8. Luccado said that church is the place where fears go to die. What role do you think you, as a member of the body of Christ, could play in alleviating someone else's fears?
